

Build! Pilgrims of Hope

Holy Spirit Catholic Schools
Faith Plan Presentation 2023-2024

Mission Statement

We are a Catholic Faith Community, dedicated to providing each student entrusted to our care with an education rooted in the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Guided by the Holy Spirit, in partnership with home, parish and society, our schools foster the growth of responsible citizens who will live, celebrate and proclaim their faith.

Our Catholic Faith is the foundation of all that we do.

Arise! Pilgrims of Hope

*Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying,
“Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?”
And I said, “Here am I; send me!”*

Isaiah 6: 8

God is in Our Minds	“I told them that the hand of my God had been gracious upon me, and also the words that the king had spoken to me. Then they said, “Let us start building!” So they committed themselves to the common good.” (Nehemiah 2:18)	What should be done then, my friends? When you come together, each one has a hymn, a lesson, a revelation, a tongue, or an interpretation. Let all things be done for building up. (1 Corinthians 14:26)

Year 2 - Build!

Marks

Faith Infused Curriculum

In our Catholic Schools, we recognize that we find God in each other. We strive to identify and call forth the gifts of each person and invite them to put those gifts at the service of the common good.

Spirituality of Communion

In our Catholic Schools, we live in community, spiritual unity, and relationship. We foster healing, reconciliation and renewal.

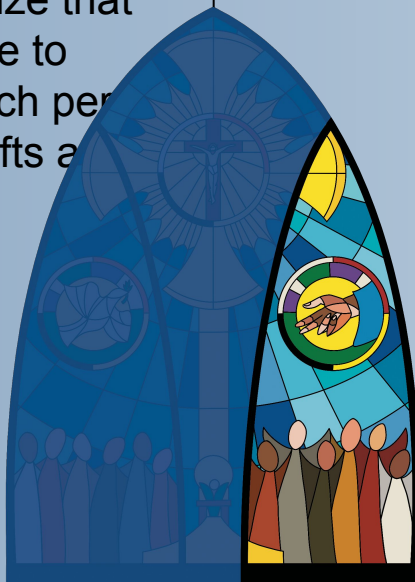

Formation

Look Outward; Theological Virtue of Faith

Corporal Works of Mercy

Catholic Social Teachings

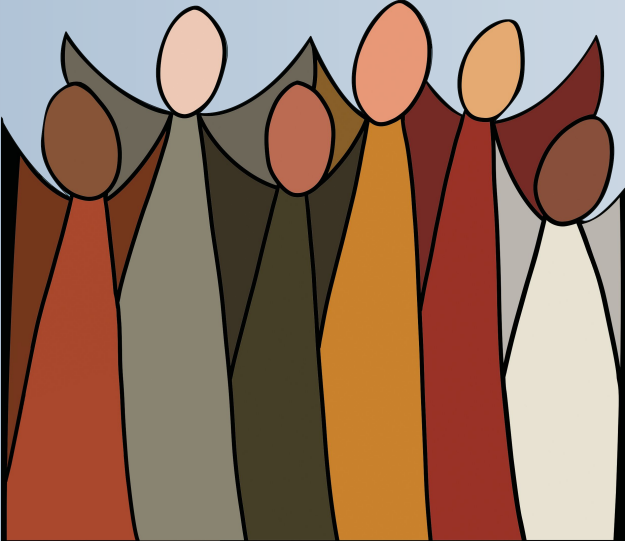

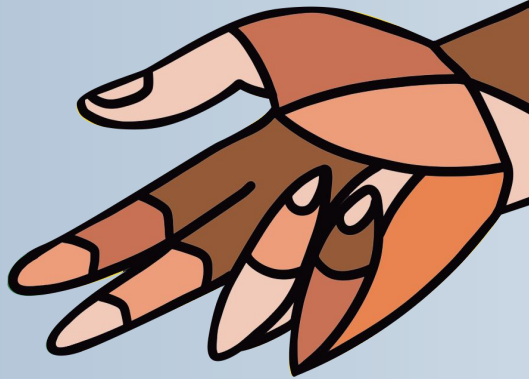

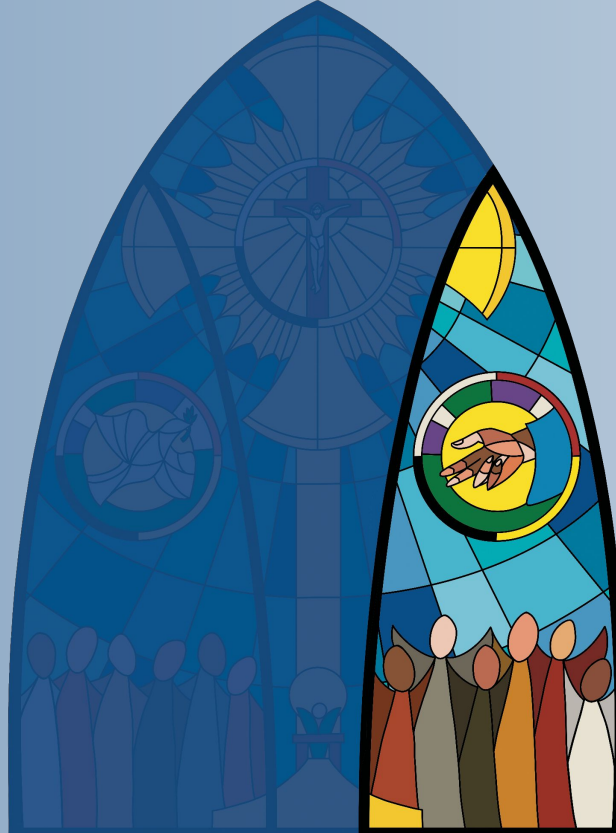

Synodal Focus on Participation

What does it look like to Build?

Building Hope

Building Pilgrims

Build our societies in such a way that they can journey towards a future of hope

Service to the common good

Building Capacity

The art of building

Endowing our vocations/occupations with meaning - offering to others in response to God's call

Building is participation in the mission of the church

Building not for ourselves (Babel) but in response to and in alignment with God's call

Walls and bridges

Building our community

Building is participation in the mission of the church

Building in charity a city based on relationships in which the love of God is laid as a foundation

Let all things be done for building up

Building our understanding of and application of Catholic Social Teachings, especially in areas where we need to respond to and engage with the culture

Building our empathy through the Corporal Works of Mercy

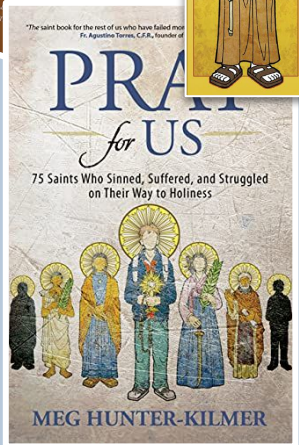

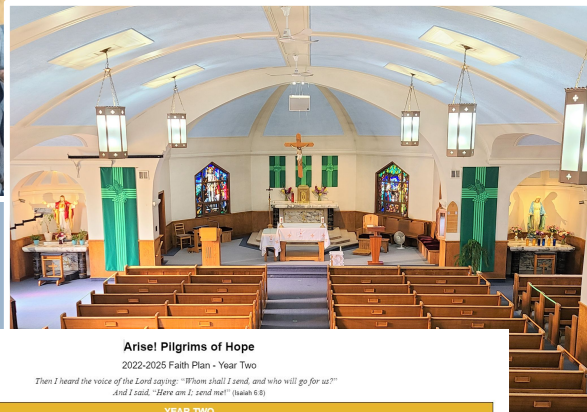

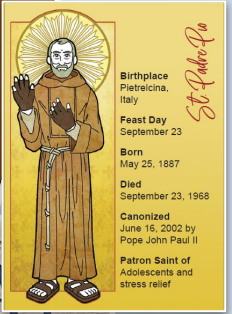

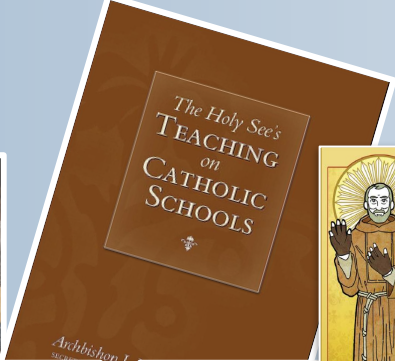

The hand of my God has been gracious upon me

Let us start building!

Committed themselves to the common good

Each one has a hymn, a lesson, a revelation, a tongue, or an interpretation.

Christus Vivit	215 When we discover that God is calling us to something, that His or that is that what we were made for – whether it be nursing, carpentry, communication, engineering, teaching, or in any other kind of work – then we will be able to summon up our best capacities for sacrifice, generosity and dedication. Knowing that we don't do things just for the sake of doing them, but rather we enjoy them with meaning, as a response to a call that resonates in the depth of our being to offer something to others: that is what makes these occupations bring a sense of true fulfillment.
Lumen Fidei	1 Faith makes us appreciate the architecture of human relationships because it grasps their ultimate foundation and definitive destiny in God: In his love, and thus sheds light on the art of building as such. It becomes a service to the common good: Faith is truly a gift for everyone. It's a common good: Its light does not simply brighten the interior of the Church, nor does it serve solely to build an external city in the flesh; it helps us build our societies in such a way that they can journey towards a future of hope. The hands of faith are raised up to heaven, even as they go about building in charity a city based on relationships in which the love of God is laid as a foundation.
